Q (The Court) Did John and Sarah ever have any children?

A Yes, they had a little daughter and she died at less than two years.

Q That was the only child, an infant child that died as an infant? A. Yes.

Q And how long would you say it was since you last saw Sarah? You said it was more than thirty years?

A Yes. My sister seen her since that time.

Q Where did you last see her?

A In Pittsburg. My first husband and I went to visit Uncle John and Aunt Sarah.

Q John was still living then?

A Oh yes, very much.

Q. What is your age?

A I was born in 1897, July 11.

Q 68? A. I am. The 11th of July I was.

Q. When did your father, Henderson, die?

A I think mother told us in 1911. I think mother had it down, because he was killed by the train.

Q Then when did your mother marry Owens?

A They have been married a long time.

Q How long after this accident, just approximately, that your father was killed?

A Oh, she was a widow seven years before she remarried.

Q Then she married this man that is now living with you?

A Yes, Henry Owens, my stepfather.

Q What real estate agent in Brunswick, that has been handling this for you, do you know his name?

A The lady? My sister knows the name.

MRS. TAYLOR: Mrs. Lula McMurray.

Q Have you been contributing to the payment of the taxes?

A Yes, sir.

Q Since Cora died?
